Landlord and Tenant Board

Landlord

Tenant

Alireza Karimzadeh somarin (the 'Landlord') applied for an order to terminate the tenancy and evict Kenny darryl Ramnarine and Lucas Ramnarine (the 'Tenant') because the Tenant did not pay the rent that the Tenant owes.

This application was heard by videoconference on April 11, 2023.

The Landlord and the Tenant, K. Ramnarine attended the hearing.

The Tenant was assisted by Tenant Duty Counsel.

Determinations:

1. The Landlord served the Tenant with a valid Notice to End Tenancy Early for Non-payment of Rent (N4 Notice). The Tenant did not void the notice by paying the amount of rent arrears owing by the termination date in the N4 Notice or before the date the application was filed.
2. As of the hearing date, the Tenant was still in possession of the rental unit.
3. The lawful rent is $3,400.00. It is due on the 1st day of each month.
4. Based on the Monthly rent, the daily rent/compensation is $111.78. This amount is calculated as follows: $3,400.00 x 12, divided by 365 days.
5. The Tenant has paid $1,200.00 to the Landlord since the application was filed.
6. The rent arrears owing to April 30, 2023 are $26,700.00.
7. The Landlord incurred costs of $186.00 for filing the application and is entitled to reimbursement of those costs.

8. The Landlord collected a rent deposit of $3,400.00 from the Tenant and this deposit is still being held by the Landlord. The rent deposit can only be applied to the last rental period of the tenancy if the tenancy is terminated.
9. Interest on the rent deposit, in the amount of $72.94 is owing to the Tenant for the period from November 25, 2021 to April 11, 2023.

Relief from Eviction

10. The Tenant testified that he can not work due to serious medical conditions. He had 2 heart attacks and he is awaiting surgery at the end of this month. He testified that he has been looking for alternate housing, however he is having a difficult time finding a place. He testified that he has his belongings partially packed and he needs time to find a place. In light of his surgery coming up, he is requesting until the end of May to vacate. He is getting assistance from a social worker to find housing.
11. The Landlord is requesting a standard order. He submits that his wife has taken on extra shifts at work to keep up with the house payments.
12. In light of the Tenant's health circumstances I find that it would not be unfair to delay the eviction until May 31, 2023. I am mindful of the Landlord's submissions regarding the pressure he and his family are under, however, in this case, I find that the prejudice faced by the Tenant if not given extra time to find a place outweighs that of the Landlord. There is a last month's rent on deposit that will go towards May and the arrears will not continue to accrue.
13. I have considered all of the disclosed circumstances in accordance with subsection 83(2) of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 (the 'Act'), and find that it would not be unfair to postpone the eviction until May 31, 2023 pursuant to subsection 83(1)(b) of the Act.

It is ordered that:

1. The tenancy between the Landlord and the Tenant is terminated unless the Tenant voids this order.
2. The Tenant may void this order and continue the tenancy by paying to the Landlord or to the LTB in trust:
 - $26,886.00 if the payment is made on or before April 30, 2023. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.

OR

 - $30,286.00 if the payment is made on or before May 31, 2023. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.
3. The Tenant may also make a motion at the LTB to void this order under section 74(11) of the Act, if the Tenant has paid the full amount owing as ordered plus any additional rent that became due after May 7, 2023 but before the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) enforces the eviction. The Tenant may only make this motion once during the tenancy.

4. If the Tenant does not pay the amount required to void this order the Tenant must move out of the rental unit on or before May 31, 2023
5. If the Tenant does not void the order, the Tenant shall pay to the Landlord $21,242.64. This amount includes rent arrears owing up to the date of the hearing and the cost of filing the application. The rent deposit and interest the Landlord owes on the rent deposit are deducted from the amount owing by the Tenant. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.
6. The Tenant shall also pay the Landlord compensation of $111.78 per day for the use of the unit starting April 12, 2023 until the date the Tenant moves out of the unit.
7. If the Tenant does not pay the Landlord the full amount owing on or before May 31, 2023, the Tenant will start to owe interest. This will be simple interest calculated from June 1, 2023 at 6.00% annually on the balance outstanding.
8. The Landlord or the Tenant shall pay to the other any sum of money that is owed as a result of this order.
9. If the unit is not vacated on or before May 31, 2023, then starting June 1, 2023, the Landlord may file this order with the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) so that the eviction may be enforced.
10. Upon receipt of this order, the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) is directed to give vacant possession of the unit to the Landlord on or after June 1, 2023.
