I hereby certify this is a

Landlord

Tenant

Niagara's Best Inn (the 'Landlord') applied for an order to terminate the tenancy and evict Jeremy Scott Peardon (the 'Tenant') because the Tenant did not pay the rent that the Tenant owes.

This application was heard by videoconference on January 31, 2023.

Only the Landlord's Agent Manshu Babbar attended the hearing.

As of 2:22 p.m., the Tenant was not present or represented at the hearing although properly served with notice of this hearing by the LTB. There was no record of a request to adjourn the hearing. As a result, the hearing proceeded with only the Landlord's evidence.

Determinations:

1. The Landlord served the Tenant with a valid Notice to End Tenancy Early for Non-payment of Rent (N4 Notice). The Tenant did not void the notice by paying the amount of rent arrears owing by the termination date in the N4 Notice or before the date the application was filed.
2. As of the hearing date, the Tenant was still in possession of the rental unit.
3. The lawful rent is $1,400.00. It is due on the 1st day of each month.
4. Based on the Monthly rent, the daily rent/compensation is $46.03. This amount is calculated as follows: $1,400.00 x 12, divided by 365 days.
5. The Tenant has paid $4,600.00 to the Landlord since the application was filed.
6. Upon review, it was apparent that there was a calculation error on the L1/L9 update sheet. The amended amount of rent arrears owing to January 31, 2023 is $7,600.00.
7. The Landlord incurred costs of $186.00 for filing the application and is entitled to reimbursement of those costs.
8. There is no last month's rent deposit.

9. The rental unit is a room in a motel that is rented by the month.
10. The Landlord's Agent testified that he was last in contact with the Tenant a few weeks prior to the hearing, but that interactions with the Tenant have involved aggression and threats. He testified that the Tenant is the only person on the rental agreement, but that there are many people who frequent the unit, one of who has been trespassed from the property.
11. The Landlord's Agent testified that he slid the L1/L9 update sheet under the Tenant's door.
12. I have considered all of the disclosed circumstances in accordance with subsection 83(2) of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 (the 'Act'), including the impact of COVID-19 on the parties and whether the Landlord attempted to negotiate a repayment agreement with the Tenant and find that it would be unfair to grant relief from eviction pursuant to subsection 83(1) of the Act.

It is ordered that:

1. The tenancy between the Landlord and the Tenant is terminated unless the Tenant voids this order.
2. The Tenant may void this order and continue the tenancy by paying to the Landlord or to the LTB in trust:
 - $10,586.00 if the payment is made on or before March 17, 2023. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.
3. The Tenant may also make a motion at the LTB to void this order under section 74(11) of the Act, if the Tenant has paid the full amount owing as ordered plus any additional rent that became due after March 17, 2023 but before the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) enforces the eviction. The Tenant may only make this motion once during the tenancy.
4. If the Tenant does not pay the amount required to void this order the Tenant must move out of the rental unit on or before March 17, 2023
5. If the Tenant does not void the order, the Tenant shall pay to the Landlord $7,786.00. This amount includes rent arrears owing up to the date of the hearing and the cost of filing the application. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.
6. The Tenant shall also pay the Landlord compensation of $46.03 per day for the use of the unit starting February 1, 2023 until the date the Tenant moves out of the unit.
7. If the Tenant does not pay the Landlord the full amount owing on or before March 17, 2023, the Tenant will start to owe interest. This will be simple interest calculated from March 18, 2023 at 5.00% annually on the balance outstanding.
8. The Landlord or the Tenant shall pay to the other any sum of money that is owed as a result of this order.
9. If the unit is not vacated on or before March 17, 2023, then starting March 18, 2023, the Landlord may file this order with the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) so that the eviction may be enforced.
10. Upon receipt of this order, the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) is directed to give vacant possession of the unit to the Landlord on or after March 18, 2023.
