

Order under Section 69 Residential Tenancies Act, 2006

Citation: Wallace v Holden, 2023 ONLTB 20940

Date: 2023-02-15

File Number: LTB-L-012553-22

In the matter of: A, 1072 WOODHAVEN DR
KINGSTON ON K7P0H7

Between: Alex Wallace Landlord

And

ROB HOLDEN and Robin Holden Tenant

Alex Wallace (the 'Landlord') applied for an order to terminate the tenancy and evict ROB HOLDEN and Robin Holden (the 'Tenant') because the Tenant did not pay the rent that the Tenant owes.

This application was heard by videoconference on September 12, 2022.

The Landlord, the Landlord's representative Ian Macinnis and the Tenant attended the hearing.

Determinations:

1. The Landlord served the Tenant with a valid Notice to End Tenancy Early for Non-payment of Rent (N4 Notice). The Tenant did not void the notice by paying the amount of rent arrears owing by the termination date in the N4 Notice or before the date the application was filed.
2. As of the hearing date, the Tenant was still in possession of the rental unit.
3. The lawful rent is $1,850.00. It is due on the 1st day of each month.
4. Based on the Monthly rent, the daily rent/compensation is $60.82. This amount is calculated as follows: $1,850.00 x 12, divided by 365 days.
5. The Tenant has not made any payments since the application was filed.
6. The rent arrears owing to September 30, 2022 are $25,274.60.
7. The Landlord incurred costs of $186.00 for filing the application and is entitled to reimbursement of those costs.
8. There is no last month's rent deposit.
9. I have considered all of the disclosed circumstances in accordance with subsection 83(2) of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 (the 'Act'), including the impact of COVID-19 on the parties and whether the Landlord attempted to negotiate a repayment agreement with the Tenant and find that it would be unfair to grant relief from eviction pursuant to subsection 83(1) of the Act.

10. The Tenant did not dispute the rent arrears of $25,460.60. The Tenant submitted that he had financial difficulties paying the rent due to fewer working hours and did not qualify for Canada Emergency Response Benefit (CERB) or unemployment benefits based on his income. The Tenant sought a $1000.00 monthly payment plan.
11. The Landlord expressed doubt about the Tenant's ability to pay $25,460.60 arrears because it is significant, and he had defaulted on two previous payment plans repayment plan. The Landlord asserts that the $1,000.00 monthly payment plan seems unrealistic and may put the Tenant in further financial distress.
12. On balance, considering when the hearing was held and the order is issued, I do not find a further delay reasonable.

It is ordered that:

1. The tenancy between the Landlord and the Tenant is terminated unless the Tenant voids this order.
2. The Tenant may void this order and continue the tenancy by paying to the Landlord or to the LTB in trust:
 - $33,714.00 if the payment is made on or before February 26, 2023. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.
3. The Tenant may also make a motion at the LTB to void this order under section 74(11) of the Act, if the Tenant has paid the full amount owing as ordered plus any additional rent that became due after February 26, 2023 but before the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) enforces the eviction. The Tenant may only make this motion once during the tenancy.
4. If the Tenant does not pay the amount required to void this order the Tenant must move out of the rental unit on or before February 26, 2023
5. If the Tenant does not void the order, the Tenant shall pay to the Landlord $24,365.84. This amount includes rent arrears owing up to the date of the hearing and the cost of filing the application. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.
6. The Tenant shall also pay the Landlord compensation of $60.82 per day for the use of the unit starting September 13, 2022 until the date the Tenant moves out of the unit.
7. If the Tenant does not pay the Landlord the full amount owing on or before February 26, 2023, the Tenant will start to owe interest. This will be simple interest calculated from February 27, 2023 at 5.00% annually on the balance outstanding.
8. The Landlord or the Tenant shall pay to the other any sum of money that is owed as a result of this order.
9. If the unit is not vacated on or before February 26, 2023, then starting February 27, 2023, the Landlord may file this order with the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) so that the eviction may be enforced.

10. Upon receipt of this order, the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) is directed to give vacant possession of the unit to the Landlord on or after February 27, 2023.
