

Order under Section 69 Residential Tenancies Act, 2006

Citation: 650 Parliament Residences v Magendran, 2023 ONLTB 14474

Date: 2023-01-09

File Number: LTB-L-023822-22

In the matter of: 208, 650 PARLIAMENT ST
TORONTO ON M4X1R3

Between: 650 Parliament Residences Landlord

And

Praveenadevi Magendran Tenant

650 Parliament Residences (the 'Landlord') applied for an order to terminate the tenancy and evict Praveenadevi Magendran (the 'Tenant') because the Tenant did not pay the rent that the Tenant owes.

This application was heard by videoconference on January 4, 2023.

Only the Landlord's Representative Charlie Bobrowsky attended the hearing.

As of 10:08a.m., the Tenant was not present or represented at the hearing although properly served with notice of this hearing by the LTB. There was no record of a request to adjourn the hearing. As a result, the hearing proceeded with only the Landlord's evidence.

Determinations:

1. The Landlord served the Tenant with a valid Notice to End Tenancy Early for Non-payment of Rent (N4 Notice). The Tenant did not void the notice by paying the amount of rent arrears owing by the termination date in the N4 Notice or before the date the application was filed.
2. As of the hearing date, the Tenant was still in possession of the rental unit.
3. The lawful rent is $1,053.05. It is due on the 1st day of each month.
4. Based on the Monthly rent, the daily rent/compensation is $34.62. This amount is calculated as follows: $$1,053.05 \times 12$, divided by 365 days.
5. The Tenant has paid $8,890.00 to the Landlord since the application was filed.
6. The rent arrears owing to January 31, 2023 are $859.26.
7. The Landlord incurred costs of $186.00 for filing the application and is entitled to reimbursement of those costs.

8. The Landlord collected a rent deposit of $1,032.02 from the Tenant and this deposit is still being held by the Landlord. The rent deposit can only be applied to the last rental period of the tenancy if the tenancy is terminated.
9. Interest on the rent deposit, in the amount of $12.67 is owing to the Tenant for the period from January 1, 2021 to January 4, 2023.
10. I have considered all of the disclosed circumstances in accordance with subsection 83(2) of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 (the 'Act'), and find that it would not be unfair to postpone the eviction until January 31, 2023 pursuant to subsection 83(1)(b) of the Act. According to the Landlord's Representative a repayment agreement had been reached with the Tenant in which the Tenant would pay off the entirety of the arrears by December 15, 2022, but the Tenant breached that agreement. As the Tenant was unable to abide by a previous repayment agreement, I do not think it would be fair in the circumstances to impose another one upon the Landlord. However, the outstanding rental arrears are fairly low, and the Tenant has been making somewhat consistent payments, and as such I am going to postpone the eviction until January 31, 2023 to give the Tenant an opportunity to pay off the entire amount owing. I have decided to not postpone the eviction beyond that date in recognition of the fact that there are outstanding arrears, and the Landlord may suffer prejudice from an overly postponed eviction.

It is ordered that:

1. The tenancy between the Landlord and the Tenant is terminated unless the Tenant voids this order.
2. The Tenant may void this order and continue the tenancy by paying to the Landlord or to the LTB in trust:
 - $1,045.26 if the payment is made on or before January 31, 2023. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.
3. The Tenant may also make a motion at the LTB to void this order under section 74(11) of the Act, if the Tenant has paid the full amount owing as ordered plus any additional rent that became due after January 31, 2023 but before the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) enforces the eviction. The Tenant may only make this motion once during the tenancy.
4. If the Tenant does not pay the amount required to void this order the Tenant must move out of the rental unit on or before January 31, 2023.
5. As of the date of the hearing, the amount of the rent deposit and interest the Landlord owes on the rent deposit exceeds the arrears of rent, compensation and the cost of filing the application the Landlord is entitled to by $914.00. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing. However, the Landlord is authorized to deduct from the amount owing to the Tenant $34.62 per day for compensation for the use of the unit starting January 5, 2023 until the date the Tenant moves out of the unit.
6. The Landlord or the Tenant shall pay to the other any sum of money that is owed as a result of this order.

7. If the unit is not vacated on or before January 31, 2023, then starting February 1, 2023, the Landlord may file this order with the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) so that the eviction may be enforced.
8. Upon receipt of this order, the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) is directed to give vacant possession of the unit to the Landlord on or after February 1, 2023.
