

Order under Section 69 Residential Tenancies Act, 2006

Citation: Capreit Limited Partnership v Henry, 2022 ONLTB 12966

Date: 2022-11-25

File Number: LTB-L-019840-22

In the matter of: 1616, 500 MURRAY ROSS PKY
TORONTO ON M3J2Z3

Between: Capreit Limited Partnership Landlord

And

Mark Henry Tenant

Capreit Limited Partnership (the 'Landlord') applied for an order to terminate the tenancy and evict Mark Henry (the 'Tenant') because the Tenant did not pay the rent that the Tenant owes.

This application was heard by videoconference on October 25, 2022.

The Landlord's Legal Representative N. Sharma and the Tenant attended the hearing.

Determinations:

1. The Landlord served the Tenant with a valid Notice to End Tenancy Early for Non-payment of Rent (N4 Notice). The Tenant did not void the notice by paying the amount of rent arrears owing by the termination date in the N4 Notice or before the date the application was filed.
2. As of the hearing date, the Tenant was still in possession of the rental unit.
3. The lawful rent is $1,614.14. It is due on the 1st day of each month.
4. Based on the Monthly rent, the daily rent/compensation is $53.07. This amount is calculated as follows: $1,614.14 x 12, divided by 365 days.
5. The Tenant has not made any payments since the application was filed.
6. The rent arrears owing to October 31, 2022 are $16,628.28.
7. The Landlord incurred costs of $186.00 for filing the application and is entitled to reimbursement of those costs.
8. There is no last month's rent deposit.

Section 83 considerations

9. The Tenant testified that he went through a serious sickness and had to undergo an operation so he could not work for three months. He also testified that he started part-time work again October 6, 2021. That is why he made a rental payment of $1000.00 in November 2021 but since then again, he has not made any rental payments. Since September 5, 2022 he has been working full time but since he had a lot of other outstanding bills, he could not make additional rental payments.

10. The Tenants current income and expenses do not allow him to make additional payments against the rent arrears. The Tenant requested two months to move out of the rental unit, but the substantial rent arrears make it prejudicial to the Landlord since there is no rent deposit either. Keeping in mind that it is already a month since the date of the hearing, I am not willing to grant additional time to the Tenant after this.
11. I have considered all of the disclosed circumstances in accordance with subsection 83(2) of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 (the 'Act'), including the impact of COVID-19 on the parties and whether the Landlord attempted to negotiate a repayment agreement with the Tenant and find that it would be unfair to grant relief from eviction pursuant to subsection 83(1) of the Act.

It is ordered that:

1. The tenancy between the Landlord and the Tenant is terminated unless the Tenant voids this order.
2. The Tenant may void this order and continue the tenancy by paying to the Landlord or to the LTB in trust:
 - $18,428.42 if the payment is made on or before November 30, 2022. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.

OR

 - $20,042.56 if the payment is made on or before December 6, 2022. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.
3. The Tenant may also make a motion at the LTB to void this order under section 74(11) of the Act, if the Tenant has paid the full amount owing as ordered plus any additional rent that became due after December 6, 2022 but before the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) enforces the eviction. The Tenant may only make this motion once during the tenancy.
4. If the Tenant does not pay the amount required to void this order the Tenant must move out of the rental unit on or before December 6, 2022
5. If the Tenant does not void the order, the Tenant shall pay to the Landlord $16,526.89. This amount includes rent arrears owing up to the date of the hearing and the cost of filing the application. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.
6. The Tenant shall also pay the Landlord compensation of $52.44 per day for the use of the unit starting October 26, 2022 until the date the Tenant moves out of the unit.
7. If the Tenant does not pay the Landlord the full amount owing on or before December 6, 2022, the Tenant will start to owe interest. This will be simple interest calculated from December 7, 2022 at 4.00% annually on the balance outstanding.

8. If the unit is not vacated on or before December 6, 2022, then starting December 7, 2022, the Landlord may file this order with the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) so that the eviction may be enforced.
9. Upon receipt of this order, the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) is directed to give vacant possession of the unit to the Landlord on or after December 7, 2022.
