

Order under Section 69 Residential Tenancies Act, 2006

Citation: Vettivelu v Khaleel, 2022 ONLTB 11228

Date: 2022-11-09

File Number: LTB-L-008167-22

In the matter of: 2305, 550 WEBB DR
MISSISSAUGA ON L5B3Y4

Between: Sirinivasan Vettivelu Landlord

And

Marwah Adulkareem, Moamar Khaleel Tenant

Sirinivasan Vettivelu (the 'Landlord') applied for an order to terminate the tenancy and evict Marwah Adulkareem, Moamar Khaleel (the 'Tenant') because the Tenant did not pay the rent that the Tenant owes.

This application was heard by videoconference on August 17, 2022.

The Landlord, the Landlord's representative Dionne Samuels-Dussie, and the Tenant attended the hearing.

Determinations:

1. The Landlord served the Tenant with a valid Notice to End Tenancy Early for Non-payment of Rent (N4 Notice). The Tenant did not void the notice by paying the amount of rent arrears owing by the termination date in the N4 Notice or before the date the application was filed.
2. As of the hearing date, the Tenant was still in possession of the rental unit.
3. The lawful rent is $2,250.00. It is due on the 1st day of each month.
4. Based on the Monthly rent, the daily rent/compensation is $73.97. This amount is calculated as follows: $2,250.00 x 12, divided by 365 days.
5. The Tenant has paid $6,750.00 to the Landlord since the application was filed.
6. The rent arrears owing to August 31, 2022 are $9,000.00.
7. The Landlord incurred costs of $186.00 for filing the application and is entitled to reimbursement of those costs.
8. The Landlord collected a rent deposit of $2,250.00 from the Tenant and this deposit is still being held by the Landlord. The rent deposit can only be applied to the last rental period of the tenancy if the tenancy is terminated.

9. The Tenant also requested to raise a number of issues pursuant to section 82 of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 (the 'Act'). The Tenant testified that Electrical outlets had been loose since the first week of moving in and were repaired on July 15, 2021. The dishwasher and the stove were broken on June 01, 2021 and were repaired on July 15, 2021.
10. The Landlord objected to this request arguing that the Tenant did not notify the Landlord of his intention to raise these issues and did not know what the issues were or what relief the Tenant would be seeking. The Landlord submitted that there was a delay in securing service appointments to address the electrical outlets and appliance replacement due to COVID.
11. Section 82 of the Act provides that at a rent arrears hearing the Board shall permit the Tenant to raise any issue that could be the subject of an application made by the tenant if the tenant provides the landlord and the Board with advance disclosure of the issue and the evidence in accordance with the Board's rules or provides an explanation satisfactory to the Board explaining why the tenant could not comply with the disclosure requirements.
12. Rule 19.4 of the Rules of Procedure of the Landlord and Tenant Board states:

“Unless the LTB directed or ordered otherwise, a tenant who intends to raise issues under sections 82(1) or 87(2) of the RTA during an application about rent arrears shall provide the other parties and the LTB the following at least 7 days before the scheduled CMH or hearing: 1. A written description of each issue the tenant intends to raise; and ...”
13. The Tenant did not explain why he did not provide the Landlords with any details about the maintenance issues he intended to raise at the hearing other than that he needed more time to do so. The evidence the Tenant wanted to rely upon was fairly extensive, and I do not find that the Landlords could have a fair hearing without knowing the case against them. Therefore, I cannot consider the Tenant's section 82 issues, but they may file his own application to have these concerns considered by the Board.
14. I have considered all of the disclosed circumstances in accordance with subsection 83(2) of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 (the 'Act'), including the impact of COVID-19 on the parties and whether the Landlord attempted to negotiate a repayment agreement with the Tenant and find that it would be unfair to grant relief from eviction pursuant to subsection 83(1) of the Act.

It is ordered that:

1. The tenancy between the Landlord and the Tenant is terminated unless the Tenant voids this order.
2. The Tenant may void this order and continue the tenancy by paying to the Landlord or to the LTB in trust:
 - $6,936.00 if the payment is made on or before November 20, 2022. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.

3. The Tenant may also make a motion at the LTB to void this order under section 74(11) of the Act, if the Tenant has paid the full amount owing as ordered plus any additional rent that became due after November 20, 2022 but before the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) enforces the eviction. The Tenant may only make this motion once during the tenancy.
4. If the Tenant does not pay the amount required to void this order the Tenant must move out of the rental unit on or before November 20, 2022
5. If the Tenant does not void the order, the Tenant shall pay to the Landlord $186.00. This amount includes rent arrears owing up to the date of the hearing and the cost of filing the application. The rent deposit and interest the Landlord owes on the rent deposit are deducted from the amount owing by the Tenant. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.
6. The Tenant shall also pay the Landlord compensation of $73.97 per day for the use of the unit starting August 18, 2022 until the date the Tenant moves out of the unit.
7. If the Tenant does not pay the Landlord the full amount owing on or before November 20, 2022, the Tenant will start to owe interest. This will be simple interest calculated from November 21, 2022 at 2.00% annually on the balance outstanding.
8. If the unit is not vacated on or before November 20, 2022, then starting November 21, 2022, the Landlord may file this order with the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) so that the eviction may be enforced.
9. Upon receipt of this order, the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) is directed to give vacant possession of the unit to the Landlord on or after November 21, 2022.
