

Order under Section 69 Residential Tenancies Act, 2006

Citation: Hazelview Property Services Inc v Cameron, 2022 ONLTB 10258

Date: 2022-11-02

File Number: LTB-L-019427-22

In the matter of: 411, 200 DUFFERIN ST
TORONTO ON M6K1Z4

Between: Hazelview Property Services Inc Landlord

And

Kiera-arielle Cameron Tenant

Hazelview Property Services Inc (the 'Landlord') applied for an order to terminate the tenancy and evict Kiera-arielle Cameron (the 'Tenant') because the Tenant did not pay the rent that the Tenant owes.

This application was heard by videoconference on October 24, 2022.

The Landlord's representative Sean Beard and the Tenant attended the hearing.

Preliminary Issues:

1. On the date of the hearing and part way through the hearing, the Tenant requested an adjournment to allow her more time to obtain information to discuss a payment plan. She said that she recently became "unfit to work." However, the Tenant did not provide any documentary evidence to support this proposition. The Landlord objected to the adjournment request and noted this should have been done prior to the hearing and the Tenant had ample time to prepare prior to today.
2. Based on the evidence before the Board and the fact that the arrears are substantial, the Tenant's request to adjourn for a later hearing date was denied.

Determinations:

1. The Landlord served the Tenant with a valid Notice to End Tenancy Early for Non-payment of Rent (N4 Notice). The Tenant did not void the notice by paying the amount of rent arrears owing by the termination date in the N4 Notice or before the date the application was filed.
2. As of the hearing date, the Tenant was still in possession of the rental unit.
3. The lawful rent is $1,790.22. It is due on the 1st day of each month.

4. Based on the Monthly rent, the daily rent/compensation is $58.86. This amount is calculated as follows: $1,790.22 x 12, divided by 365 days.
5. The Tenant has paid $1,770.00 to the Landlord since the application was filed.
6. The rent arrears owing to October 31, 2022 are $14,319.56.
7. The Landlord incurred costs of $186.00 for filing the application and is entitled to reimbursement of those costs.
8. The Landlord collected a rent deposit of $1,769.00 from the Tenant and this deposit is still being held by the Landlord. The rent deposit can only be applied to the last rental period of the tenancy if the tenancy is terminated.
9. Interest on the rent deposit, in the amount of $36.70 is owing to the Tenant for the period from February 1, 2020 to October 24, 2022.
10. The parties did not dispute the amount of arrears owed by the Tenant to the Landlord.
11. The Tenant testified that she was recently put off work as “unfit to work” and she is awaiting approval for employment insurance. No documentary evidence was submitted to support the Tenant’s position.
12. The Landlord took the position that the Tenant owes the Landlord significant arrears and to further delay would be prejudicial to the Landlord.
13. The Landlord is seeking a standard order.
14. I conducted a detailed income and expense analysis and reviewed the results with the parties. I explained to the Tenant the fact that her expenses far exceed her income and that adding an arrears payment appears to be unattainable.
15. The Tenant understood the analysis and acknowledged she cannot afford to live in the rental unit.

Relief from eviction

16. The Tenant said a friend lives in the rental unit with her but does not contribute financially to the rent. She is seeking relief and said she suffers from medical issues and needs to stay in the rental unit to be close to her support resources. No documentary evidence was submitted to support this proposition.
17. I have considered all of the disclosed circumstances in accordance with subsection 83(2) of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 (the 'Act'), and find that it would be unfair to grant relief from eviction pursuant to subsection 83(1) of the Act.

It is ordered that:

1. The tenancy between the Landlord and the Tenant is terminated unless the Tenant voids this order.
2. The Tenant may void this order and continue the tenancy by paying to the Landlord or to the LTB in trust:

- $16,295.78 if the payment is made on or before November 13, 2022. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.
3. The Tenant may also make a motion at the LTB to void this order under section 74(11) of the Act, if the Tenant has paid the full amount owing as ordered plus any additional rent that became due after November 13, 2022 but before the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) enforces the eviction. The Tenant may only make this motion once during the tenancy.
 4. If the Tenant does not pay the amount required to void this order the Tenant must move out of the rental unit on or before November 13, 2022
 5. If the Tenant does not void the order, the Tenant shall pay to the Landlord $12,322.28. This amount includes rent arrears owing up to the date of the hearing and the cost of filing the application. The rent deposit and interest the Landlord owes on the rent deposit are deducted from the amount owing by the Tenant. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.
 6. The Tenant shall also pay the Landlord compensation of $58.86 per day for the use of the unit starting October 25, 2022 until the date the Tenant moves out of the unit.
 7. If the Tenant does not pay the Landlord the full amount owing on or before November 13, 2022, the Tenant will start to owe interest. This will be simple interest calculated from November 14, 2022 at 3.00% annually on the balance outstanding.
 8. If the unit is not vacated on or before November 13, 2022, then starting November 14, 2022, the Landlord may file this order with the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) so that the eviction may be enforced.
 9. Upon receipt of this order, the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) is directed to give vacant possession of the unit to the Landlord on or after November 14, 2022.
