

Order under Section 69 Residential Tenancies Act, 2006

Citation: Starlight Canadian Residential Growth Fund II v Peters, 2022 ONLTB 8968
File Number: LTB-L-014412-22

In the matter of: 308, 292 OAKDALE AVE
ST CATHARINES ON L2P3T3

Between: Starlight Canadian Residential Growth Fund II Landlord

And

Shannon Peters Tenant

Starlight Canadian Residential Growth Fund II (the 'Landlord') applied for an order to terminate the tenancy and evict Shannon Peters (the 'Tenant') because the Tenant did not pay the rent that the Tenant owes.

This application was heard by videoconference on September 26, 2022.

The Landlord and the Tenant attended the hearing.

Determinations:

1. The Landlord served the Tenant with a valid Notice to End Tenancy Early for Non-payment of Rent (N4 Notice). The Tenant did not void the notice by paying the amount of rent arrears owing by the termination date in the N4 Notice or before the date the application was filed.
2. As of the hearing date, the Tenant was still in possession of the rental unit.
3. The lawful rent is $1,428.58. It is due on the 1st day of each month.
4. Based on the Monthly rent, the daily rent/compensation is $46.97. This amount is calculated as follows: $1,428.58 x 12, divided by 365 days.
5. The Tenant has not made any payments since the application was filed.
6. The rent arrears owing to September 30, 2022 are $16,185.32
7. The Landlord incurred costs of $186.00 for filing the application and is entitled to reimbursement of those costs.
8. The Landlord collected a rent deposit of $1,450.08 from the Tenant and this deposit is still being held by the Landlord. The rent deposit can only be applied to the last rental period of the tenancy if the tenancy is terminated.
9. Interest on the rent deposit, in the amount of $12.82 is owing to the Tenant for the period from January 1, 2022 to September 26, 2022.

Section 83 considerations

10. The Tenant raised some section 83 considerations at the hearing that she is a single mother of a 20-year-old specially abled son who has cerebral palsy.
11. The Tenant testified that she had lost her job due to COVID-19 and only got one of her two jobs back now. She herself is dealing with mental illness. She further added that she is making around $2,400 per month from the job she is working at and would like to add a cousin to the lease to help with monthly rent payments. The tenant with the current income and expenses is not able to sustain the tenancy.
12. Even though I am sympathetic to the Tenant's personal circumstances, yet the large rent arrears are prejudicial to the Landlord.
13. Based on the circumstances presented at the hearing by both parties and considering all of the disclosed circumstances in accordance with subsection 83(2) of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 (the 'Act'), including the impact of COVID-19 on the parties and whether the Landlord attempted to negotiate a repayment agreement with the Tenant and find that it would be unfair to grant relief from eviction pursuant to subsection 83(1) of the Act. I am willing to grant the Tenant an additional month to find alternate accommodation or pay off the rent arrears.

It is ordered that:

1. The tenancy between the Landlord and the Tenant is terminated unless the Tenant voids this order.
2. The Tenant may void this order and continue the tenancy by paying to the Landlord or to the LTB in trust:
 - $17,853.90 if the payment is made on or before October 31, 2022. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.

OR

 - $19,336.48 if the payment is made on or before November 30, 2022. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.
3. The Tenant may also make a motion at the LTB to void this order under section 74(11) of the Act, if the Tenant has paid the full amount owing as ordered plus any additional rent that became due after November 30, 2022 but before the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) enforces the eviction. The Tenant may only make this motion once during the tenancy.
4. If the Tenant does not pay the amount required to void this order the Tenant must move out of the rental unit on or before November 30, 2022
5. If the Tenant does not void the order, the Tenant shall pay to the Landlord $14,693.14. This amount includes rent arrears owing up to the date of the hearing and the cost of filing the application. The rent deposit and interest the Landlord owes on the rent deposit are deducted from the amount owing by the Tenant. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.

6. The Tenant shall also pay the Landlord compensation of $48.16 per day for the use of the unit starting September 27, 2022 until the date the Tenant moves out of the unit.
7. If the Tenant does not pay the Landlord the full amount owing on or before November 30, 2022, the Tenant will start to owe interest. This will be simple interest calculated from December 1, 2022 at 4.00% annually on the balance outstanding.
8. If the unit is not vacated on or before November 30, 2022, then starting December 1, 2022, the Landlord may file this order with the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) so that the eviction may be enforced.
9. Upon receipt of this order, the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) is directed to give vacant possession of the unit to the Landlord on or after December 1, 2022.
