

Order under Section 69 Residential Tenancies Act, 2006

Citation: Peel Housing Corp o/a Peel Living v Dumanjug, 2022 ONLTB 8970
File Number: LTB-L-014636-22

In the matter of: A207, 6045 GLEN ERIN DR
MISSISSAUGA ON L5N2X1

Between: Peel Housing Corp o/a Peel Living Landlord

And

Jesapher Dumanjug Tenant

Peel Housing Corp o/a Peel Living (the 'Landlord') applied for an order to terminate the tenancy and evict Jesapher Dumanjug (the 'Tenant') because the Tenant did not pay the rent that the Tenant owes.

This application was heard by videoconference on September 26, 2022.

The Landlord's representative N.Nowrocky and the Tenant attended the hearing.

Determinations:

1. The Landlord served the Tenant with a valid Notice to End Tenancy Early for Non-payment of Rent (N4 Notice). The Tenant did not void the notice by paying the amount of rent arrears owing by the termination date in the N4 Notice or before the date the application was filed.
2. As of the hearing date, the Tenant was still in possession of the rental unit.
3. The lawful rent is $1,297.00. It is due on the 1st day of each month.
4. Based on the Monthly rent, the daily rent/compensation is $42.64. This amount is calculated as follows: $1,297.00 x 12, divided by 365 days.
5. The Tenant has paid $5,352.42 to the Landlord since the application was filed.
6. The rent arrears owing to September 30, 2022 are $6,009.16.
7. The Landlord incurred costs of $186.00 for filing the application and is entitled to reimbursement of those costs.
8. The Landlord collected a rent deposit of $1,283.00 from the Tenant and this deposit is still being held by the Landlord. The rent deposit can only be applied to the last rental period of the tenancy if the tenancy is terminated.
9. Interest on the rent deposit, in the amount of $11.35 is owing to the Tenant for the period from January 1, 2021 to September 26, 2022.

Section 83 considerations

1. The Tenant testified that she lost her job in or around January 12, 2022 and she was re-hired as a part time employee in or around March 7, 2022. She has two children aged 20 and 22 years. Her monthly expenses are currently more than her income.
2. The Landlord's representative stated that the Landlord and Tenant had agreed upon a payment plan in December 2021 and the Tenant has only made two payments against that till date one of which was also a partial payment. The Tenant has been paying her rent since May of 2022 even though it is never in time.
3. The Tenant testified that her daughter is willing to assist her with rental payments once she gets a full-time job. The Tenant proposed a payment plan, but the Landlord's representative objected stating that the Tenant had already failed to adhere to one before and there have been no material changes to her circumstances. The tenant with the current income and expenses is not able to sustain the tenancy.
4. The Landlord's representative agreed to offer the Tenant additional time till November 30, 2022 to pay the arrears or find another accommodation which the Tenant accepted.
5. Based on the circumstances presented at the hearing by both parties and considering all of the disclosed circumstances in accordance with subsection 83(2) of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 (the 'Act'), including the impact of COVID-19 on the parties and whether the Landlord attempted to negotiate a repayment agreement with the Tenant and find that it would be unfair to grant relief from eviction pursuant to subsection 83(1) of the Act. I am willing to grant the Tenant an additional month to find alternate accommodation or pay off the rent arrears.

It is ordered that:

1. The tenancy between the Landlord and the Tenant is terminated unless the Tenant voids this order.
2. The Tenant may void this order and continue the tenancy by paying to the Landlord or to the LTB in trust:
 - $7,492.16 if the payment is made on or before October 31, 2022. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.

OR

 - $8,789.16 if the payment is made on or before November 30, 2022. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.
3. The Tenant may also make a motion at the LTB to void this order under section 74(11) of the Act, if the Tenant has paid the full amount owing as ordered plus any additional rent that became due after November 30, 2022 but before the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) enforces the eviction. The Tenant may only make this motion once during the tenancy.
4. If the Tenant does not pay the amount required to void this order the Tenant must move out of the rental unit on or before November 30, 2022

5. If the Tenant does not void the order, the Tenant shall pay to the Landlord $4,712.45. This amount includes rent arrears owing up to the date of the hearing and the cost of filing the application. The rent deposit and interest the Landlord owes on the rent deposit are deducted from the amount owing by the Tenant. See Schedule 1 for the calculation of the amount owing.
6. The Tenant shall also pay the Landlord compensation of $42.18 per day for the use of the unit starting September 27, 2022 until the date the Tenant moves out of the unit.
7. If the Tenant does not pay the Landlord the full amount owing on or before November 30, 2022, the Tenant will start to owe interest. This will be simple interest calculated from December 1, 2022 at 4.00% annually on the balance outstanding.
8. If the unit is not vacated on or before November 30, 2022, then starting December 1, 2022, the Landlord may file this order with the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) so that the eviction may be enforced.
9. Upon receipt of this order, the Court Enforcement Office (Sheriff) is directed to give vacant possession of the unit to the Landlord on or after December 1, 2022.
